The Biomedical Research Store provides University of Michigan research investigators with easy, on-site procurement of enzymes, reagents, and kits used in molecular, cell biology, and some protein chemistry. More than 700 different items from 11 vendors are stocked at five locations for immediate purchase. Our large-volume vendor contracts enable the store to negotiate very low prices as well as eliminate all shipping and packaging fees.

Stocked inventory varies from location to location, and thousands of items that are not stocked are available by special order and generally available the next day.

Biomedical Research Store Vendors include:
- Agilent
- BioRad
- Finnzymes
- Invitrogen (Applied Biosystems)/Life Technologies
- Lonza
- New England Biolabs
- Pierce
- Promega
- Qiagen
- Roche Applied Science
- Sigma

Product Information
With thousands of items available to purchase, some of our best-selling items include:
- Restriction enzymes
- Cell culture media
- Gels
- DNA, RNA, Plasmid and Purification kits
- Reagents
- PCR Reagents and Enzymes
- Distilled water
- Blood and tissue kits
- And much more!

If you would like to know whether we have a certain item available, or to receive the most up-to-date list of stocked items, please connect with us.
The Biomedical Research Stores have hours convenient for the work day, and if they don’t have an item in stock, it usually arrives in 24 hours. I am continually impressed by the fast, friendly service.

— Derek Hibbs, Illumina Sequencing Technician

Placing an Order
Drop by any of the store’s five convenient locations to place an order. If there is something you’re looking for that we don’t have on-site, ask us and we will most likely be able to special order it for you.

Placing a Special Order
More than 50,000 products are included on our contracts, but not all items are stocked in the stores. To special order these products, fill out all information on the site specific Special Order Form and submit to your desired location. At this time we only accept special orders in person or via fax. Special orders must be picked up at the location where the form was submitted.

We place special orders Monday through Thursday at 10:00 a.m. If your special order form is received in the store by 10:00 a.m. your special order product(s) should arrive the following day. We will notify you by phone or e-mail once the order has arrived.

Cost Estimates & Billing
Items are typically paid for with department shortcode. If you have any questions regarding payments or invoices, please contact Deborah Cheng at 734-763-4715.
